(This is what we sound like)

Channel 1:

GIVE ME NUCLEAR POWER (Board-Shor)

Hari Krishnas, ex-hippies, scared of radiation's roast. All your chanting and demonstrating can't pop up my toast. So give me nuclear power. I live for the hour, in no ivory tower. Give me nuclear power. You think that you're just so bright, but it's not light that I see. Do you peddle your stereo or windmill your TV? So give me nuclear power. I live for the hour, in no ivory tower. I don't carry a flower. (GUITAR SOLO) Left-over leftists with nothing to do. Look, a new cause, let's build up a crew. Well, maybe you're right so let's start anew. Tear down the plants. Build bombs. So we can drop them on you. Give me nuclear power. I live for the hour, in no ivory tower. Don't want my milk to go sour. Look, we got to have nuclear power. I got a TV, an electronic ping pong game—and what am I going to do with my iron lung when the sun isn't out. Hold my breath till morning and in the rain? We got to have nuclear power. We got to have nuclear power.

I DON'T WANNA HOLD YOUR HAND (I JUST WANNA BEAT YOU UP) (Board)

I don't want to hold your hand. Holding hands is not enough. I don't want to hold your hand. I just want to beat you up. Yeah them freaks them Dylan heads, they can eat their Grateful Dead. Smoke dope to their old Airplane. They've got no-nukes on the brain. Yesterday, the Beatles said that Paul was dead. Michelle, my guy, don't you wish they all had died. Pete Townsend and The Who coming. Fans finally on their own. Who cares if they get trampled? Band's paid and then flies home. Eleven dead in Ohio. Eleven dead in Ohio. Top, top, top forty. Top, top, top forty. Get down. Top, top, top forty. Top, top, top forty. Lyrics with a meaning don't get any airplay. Don't fool yourself by dreaming there's something that you can say. Dance at the disco. Let your mind go. Get stoned. Be alone, Go out. Come home. Want to be top forty. Want to be top forty. Shoobedoobeediscó. Anyone can make it. Beebopanewwave. You just learn to fake it. Shoobedoobeedisopunk. Imitate it. Mykel, Crackers, Kim and Lori, everybody want to be top forty. Well, I went down to the Mudd Club, couldn't get in the door. Someone walked right by and it was a rock trendy. Aaahaaahaaahaaah rock trendy, aaahaaahaaahaaah, rock trendy. So I went back uptown to Hurrah. It was filled with Fiorucci punks. Somebody asked me for a safetypin and it was a rock, but it wasn't a rock. It was a rock trendy. Aaahaaahaaahaaah rock trendy aaahaaahaaahaaah, rock trendy. You used to play the new wave, said it would last, but I found out you had your head up your ass. You said it was the only music that made you feel glad, but now you search for the next fad. Power pop, or maybe you'll go disco. Of course it's slop, but gets played on the radio. You'd like to do things you did your first show. But you bitch, you won't get rich, unless you go commercial. Aaahaaahaaahaaah. Aaahaaahaaahaaah. Well, this ain't 1968, them flower creeps is much too late. We want blood, not peace and love. Holding hands is not enough. I don't want to hold your hand. Holding hands is not enough. I don't want to hold your hand. I just want to beat you up.
